Senate Resolution 310

Senator Hardeman offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The last county in Texas to be organized is situated in the 25th Senatorial District. It was created in 1887, out of Tom Green County, also in the 25th Senatorial District, and was organized in 1931 and named for Oliver Loving, a great cowman and pioneer trail driver; and

Whereas, This remarkable man, in partnership with another great Cowman, Charles Goodnight, left their mark upon the pages of Texas history as they founded the Goodnight-Loving Trail in 1867, over which thousands of Longhorns wended their weary and dusty way from the lush pastures of Texas to markets in New Mexico and

Colorado, crossing the North Concho River south of Fort Chadbourne, thence to the Middle Concho to begin the "most severe drive on all Texas trails" up Centralia Draw and on towards the Llano Estacado; and

Whereas, This trail led through the country of the Comanches, known as the "scourge of the Plains" through Castle Gap and on to Horsehead Crossing on the "sinuous Pecos—the graveyard of the Cowman's hopes." It was on this trail that Oliver Loving, of whom Colonel Goodnight spoke in a "voice of mellowed reverence," was severely wounded by a Comanche war party, as he "scouted" the trail ahead of the herd for water and grass, and from which wounds he later died in Fort Sumner, New Mexico, on September 25, 1867. True to his request to his "old pardner," Colonel Goodnight took Mr. Loving's body from Fort Sumner on February 8, 1868, where he had been temporarily buried, for permanent interment at his home in Weatherford, Texas, where it was buried with Masonic honors; and

Whereas, This fine land of rolling prairies having yielded grass and brush and produced petroleum in excess of $10,000,000.00 annually, with its county seat of Mentone, with a total population of 42 souls, honors and commemorates the memory of Oliver Loving thereby preserving to posterity the intrepidity, courage and ingenuity of those who pushed the frontier westward with their hopes, their hardships and their sacrifices, to make way for the civilization to follow; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of Texas, That it recognize the contributions of Oliver Loving and his "old pardner," Colonel Charles Goodnight, in the development of West Texas and the Southwest and congratulates the hardy citizens of Loving County in preserving the heritage bequeathed them by these pioneer cowmen and trail drivers by placing official Texas historical markers on their historical sites and structures, and that copies of this Resolution under the Seal of the Senate be forwarded to Honorable W. T. Winston, County Judge of Loving County, and to Mrs. Ellen Goodrich, Chairman of the Loving County Historical Survey Committee.

The resolution was read and was adopted.

Senate Resolution 318

Senator Watson offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council's Rural Heroism Award was conferred on young David Goolsby of Wortham in Houston on March 20, 1967, during the Texas Safety Conference; and

Whereas, The heroism of this 15-year-old Wortham High School freshman, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Goolsby, involved the rescue from near-drowning of his friend and employer, H. R. (Hank) Schulte, owner and operator of an Appaloosa horse ranch near Mexia; and

Whereas, David, his brother, and a friend were swimming in the lake on the ranch, when Schulte entered the lake on horseback to take a short cut to another pasture; as David looked up, he saw the horse rear and fall backward on the rancher; and

Whereas, Acting before his companions even saw the accident, David started swimming rapidly across the 400 yards which separated him from the horse and rider; when about halfway there, he heard Schulte call for help, then saw him go under; and

Whereas, David swam even faster and dived as deeply as possible; he felt his foot touch Schulte's neck and shoulder; working his way around trees submerged in the lake, he found Schulte, with his boot strap caught in a tree limb; and

Whereas, David broke the limb, grabbed his 170-pound friend's collar and pulled him to the surface; they were still some 120 yards from shore; struggling, the 108-pound Goolsby finally managed to get both to high ground, where he began immediately to give Schulte mouth-to-mouth resuscitation; and

Whereas, By this time the other boys were aware of the accident and joined him, bringing the stallion which had also reached shore; they placed Schulte across the horse's back and took him to the ranch house two miles away; and

Whereas, David continued to carry on with the clear-thinking which had characterized his actions in the rescue: he remembered that his employer suffered from a heart ailment, so he placed two nitroglycerine tablets under Schulte's tongue before telephoning for medical assistance; and

Whereas, The doctor arrived and gave the medical attention necessary, and commended young Goolsby for saving Schulte's life; his employer, too, said: "I owe my life to David. It's by the grace of God and David Goolsby that I'm alive today"; and

Whereas, It is appropriate that the Senate of the 60th Legislature recognize David Goolsby of Wortham for his heroic deeds and congratulate him on receiving the well-earned Rural Heroism Award from the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Texas by this Resolution pay tribute to David Goolsby, who met a great emergency with courageous action at the risk of his own life; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution, under the Seal of the Senate of Texas, be prepared for David Goolsby and his proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Goolsby, as an expression of appreciation for his heroism from the Senate and all the people of Texas.
